FROM THE MAIL BAG

Excerpt from Helen Fenton:

"My prayers go for the ones that are no longer with us, and their families. I hope that the children of all of those 383rd Army Heroes keep that special friendship alive."

My family had a surprise 80th Birthday party for me at the Fireman's Club House on May 5, 2007. There were around one hundred and thirty friends and family there. It was a real surprise and a great day.

God Bless,
Christina "Helen" Fenton"

Excerpt from Al Weisenburger:

"Wish you all well. I am doing ok, just a bit shaky. Wish all the best and happy holidays.

Love to all,
Al & Phyllyis Weisenburger"

David and I visited Larry and Mae Etta Correll in Springfield, MO on December 2. They are doing well and are getting ready to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on Christmas Eve. Congratulations!

We also want to report that Larry and Mae Etta heard from Dale VanCoillie, wife of Walt VanCoillie. They aren't able to get out any cards this year but wanted to say hello to everyone and wish all of you a Happy Holidays.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS

We hope this newsletter finds you well this holiday season. Please feel free to send us any information or articles you would like to see printed in the next edition of the newsletter. We love hearing from all of you and the more news we have to share may mean you receive a newsletter more often!

Until next time,

The Nicest Present

Under the tree the gifts enthrall,
But the nicest present of them all
Is filling our thoughts with those who care,
Wanting our Christmas joy to share.
To you, whom we're often thinking of,
We send our holiday joy and love.

The Christmas Gift of Knowing You

The Christmas season fills our hearts with joy;
Bright, happy days bring special kinds of pleasure.
We're wrapped in the excitement of it all,
The sights, the sounds, the smells, the tastes
we treasure.

Yet when we have some quiet time to think
About our finest blessings all year through,
We focus on our family and our friends,
And appreciate the gift of knowing you!
