NEWS AND UPDATES

Well, as the saying goes, no news is good news, right?

I haven't received news from anyone in quite some time. If you would like to have something printed in the newsletter, please contact us!

We were able to visit Larry and Mae Etta Correll and their family this fall. We had a wonderful visit that day! Makes all of us really miss our annual reunions.

HOLIDAY GREETINGS!

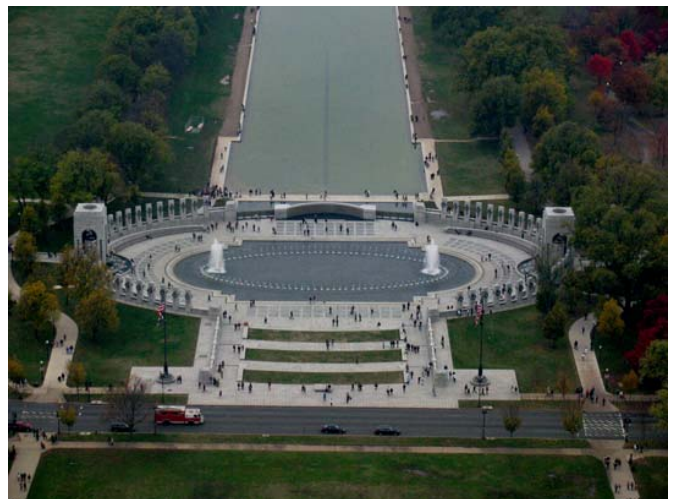

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to all of our Co E Friends!

David and I were fortunate to be able to travel to Washington, DC this fall. I was there on business and David was able to do some serious sightseeing around town for several days. The first place we went was to the World War II Memorial. We had visited the site several years ago when it was still being constructed and I was so pleased that I was able to see it completed. What a beautiful tribute to all of our WWII Veterans who served this country so bravely.

David was also able to get a tour of the inside of the White House and he went to several museums. We were also able to go up in the Washington Monument and saw an incredible view of DC from above. The photo I've included of the WWII Memorial is from the top of the Washington Monument.

Until next time,
